The Message of Easter from Pope Francis

Easter is the feast of hope. “Dear sister, dear brother, even if in your heart you have buried hope, do not give up: God is greater. Darkness and death do not have the last word. Be strong, for with God nothing is lost!”

Easter is the exodus to love and goodness. “This is what Easter is: it is the exodus, the passage of human beings from slavery to sin and evil to the freedom of love and goodness. Because God is life, life alone, and we are his glory: the living man.”

To celebrate Easter is to allow Jesus to triumph. “To celebrate Easter is to believe once more that God constantly breaks into our personal life and history, challenging our “conventions”, those fixed ways of thinking and acting that end up paralyzing us. To celebrate Easter is to allow Jesus to triumph over the despair and craven fear that so often assail us and tries to bury our faith and our hope in God.”

Easter sacraments renew our life and our relationships. “The grace of the Sacraments of Easter (Baptism and Communion) is the enormous potential for the renewal of our personal existence, of family life, of social relations. This is because everything passes through the human heart: if I let myself be touched by the grace of the Risen Christ, if I let him change in me that aspect of mine which is not good, which can hurt me and others, I allow the victory of Christ to be affirmed in my life, to broaden the benefits of God’s grace.”

We walk by faith. “Let us not quench the wavering flame (cf. Is 42:3) that never falters, and let us allow our hope to be rekindled.”

To him all the prophets bear witness; whoever believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.

Finding God's Mercy in Our Brokenness

Wednesday, April 20, 2022 6:00-8:00pm. In this workshop, we will taste and come to understand the saving "Love of God" that frees us to find our true dignity, value and identity. Praying With Our Personality Type Virtual Presentation Friday, April 29. 10am-noon (Info: call (504) 861-3254) This workshop embraces the relationship between our prayer and our personality types. Through prayer, we grow into who we are created to be. In our uniqueness, we are drawn to different styles and types of prayer.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).
Psalm — This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).
(1) Second Reading — All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4)
Gospel — Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb. (John 20:1-9)

EVERYTHING IS CHANGED

Easter changes everything. Having been raised from the dead, Jesus shatters the frightful images that haunt humanity. Betrayal, torture, crucifixion, death, burial—these terrors pale in the brilliant glory of Jesus resurrected. Today's psalm guides our response to God's power: "it is wonderful in our eyes." Today is indeed a day for wonder, for gasping in astonishment at Jesus' resurrection. For all of history, death had been final. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter testifies that Jesus, who was publicly executed, was raised to life by God. John's Gospel admits that the disciples "did not yet understand that he had to rise from the dead." Even Jesus' closest friends were not expecting such innovation: life after death. In response to the Easter miracle, Paul tells us, Everything, even our very selves, must become new. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Easter changes everything.

Pope Francis' April Intention

Health Care Workers- We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

SANCTUARY CANDLE AND MASS INTENTIONS

The Sanctuary Candle this week is for Sr. Suellen Tennison. To reserve the Sanctuary Candle in memory of someone or a special intention, call the church office (504-522-3186). The offering is $15 for one week. The offering for Mass intentions is $5.00.

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line and your message will be received confidentially by a mental health professional. Anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims' Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253.
