The Passion of the Lord Narrative

Holy Week observances began in Jerusalem in the earliest days of the Church, when devout people traveled to Jerusalem at Passover to reenact the events of the week leading up to the Resurrection. The Palm Sunday Liturgy, which marks the beginning of Holy Week, is like an overture for all of Holy Week: At the beginning of the ceremony, palms are blessed and a short Gospel is read describing Jesus' triumphal entrance into Jerusalem riding on a donkey. During the Mass, the Passion is read from the Gospel of Luke, in three parts.

The purpose of Holy Week is to remember, relive, and participate in the Paschal Mystery of Jesus Christ, which is his suffering, death and resurrection. The liturgy for Palm Sunday begins in triumph, but quickly there looms the shadow of the cross. In fact, the joy of Christ's followers on the first Palm Sunday was short-lived. The crowd in Jerusalem was swelled immensely that day by all who had gathered for the Passover celebration.

One of Sunday's contrasts — the entrance of Jesus to Jerusalem's cheering crowds and his crucifixion and death on the cross — which we hear in the passion narrative of Palm Sunday leads all Christian disciples into the saving mysteries of Christ's passion, death and resurrection that we celebrate in one liturgical service, called the Triduum, which begins on Holy Thursday with the celebration of the Eucharist and washing of the feet (ending with prayer and adoration), continues with Friday's Passion Narrative from the Gospel of John, the veneration of the Cross and prayers for the salvation of the world, and leads us to The Easter Vigil/Mass of the Resurrection, which begins on Saturday at dusk and celebrates Jesus, the Light of the World, who dispels the darkness of sin and even death and gives life to the world and eternal life to all who believe in Him.

The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced. — Isaiah 50:7

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Almighty ever-living God, who as an example of humility for the human race to follow caused our Savior to take flesh and submit to the Cross, graciously grant that we may heed his lesson of patient suffering and so merit a share in his Resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, Our God, for ever and ever. Amen

TODAY'S READINGS

Gospel at the Procession with Palms — Jesus' entry into Jerusalem (Luke 19:28-40).

First Reading — In spite of my sufferings I am not disgraced. I am not put to shame (Isaiah 50:4-7).

Psalms — My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Psalm 22).

Second Reading — Christ emptied himself, and God filled this emptiness with exaltation (Philippians 2:6-11).

Gospel — The account of Christ's passion according to Luke (Luke 22:14 — 23:56)

THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST'S LOVE

From the proclamation of the Gospel at the beginning of the liturgy, we know that today is different, not only because we hear two Gospel passages, or because we hold palms and move in procession. Today begins Holy Week, a time set apart, a week in which to listen, pray, reflect, and take to heart the truth of Christ's passion, crucifixion, death, and ultimately, resurrection. It takes a week, and a lifetime, to truly hear the message of Christ's love. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus willingly sacrificed himself, so we must hear the story again and again. Let this week be for us a new moment of faith in which we, together with the criminal who was crucified with Christ, cry out, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Pope Francis' April Intention

Health Care Workers- We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

SANCTUARY CANDLE AND MASS INTENTIONS

The Sanctuary Candle this week is for Sr. Suellen Tennison. To reserve the Sanctuary Candle in memory of someone or a special intention, call the church office (504-522-3186). The offering is $15 for one week. The offering for Mass intentions is $5.00.

CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

In response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Archdiocese of New Orleans continues to make the Hot Line available for anyone who has been hurt or sexually abused by anyone who works for the Church. The Hot Line continues to be available; the number is (504) 522-5019. In continuing our commitment to support and to heal, we invite and encourage individuals who have been hurt or sexually abused recently or in the past by clergy, religious or other employees of the Archdiocese to call our Hot Line and your message will be received confidentially by a mental health professional. Anyone can make a direct call during regular business hours to the Victims' Assistance Coordinator at (504) 861-6253.
