St John Bosco

John Bosco was born in Becchi, Italy, on August 16, 1815. Raised by his mother, John attended church and became very devout. In 1835, John entered the seminary and following six years of study, he was ordained a priest in 1841. His first assignment was to the city of Turin. The city had slums and widespread poverty. It was into these poor neighborhoods that John went to work with the children of the poor. He and his mother were responsible for lodging 800 boys. Fr. Bosco also negotiated new rights for boys who were employed as apprentices and identified boys he thought would make good priests and encouraged them to consider a vocation to the priesthood. St. John Bosco is the patron of apprentices, magicians, juvenile delinquents. His feast day is Jan 31.

Pope Francis’ January Intention
