October: Month of the Rosary- The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is primarily due to the fact that the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful. The Rosary is appealing and simple. The purpose of the Rosary is to help us meditate on the great mysteries of our salvation. Every time we pray the Our Father we are reminded that Jesus' Father is the initiator of salvation. Praying the Hail Mary reminds us that we are joining with Mary in contemplating these mysteries. In addition, they help to make us aware that Mary was and is still intimately joined with her son, Jesus, in all the mysteries of earthly and heavenly existence. The constant repetition of prayer creates an atmosphere of contemplation. For more Rosary resources and devotions please visit the Archdiocese of New Orleans at October: Month of the Rosary - Archdiocese of New Orleans - New Orleans, LA \(nolacatholic.org\)

Respect Life Month-Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity and gift of every human life.

Pray the Respect Life Month Novena-

October 22-30, 2024 Join thousands of Catholics across the country praying for the protection of human life from conception to natural death. TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — “I prayed and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.” (Wis 7:7-11)

Psalm — “Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil.” (Ps 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17)

Second Reading — “Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword...” (Heb 4:12-13)

Gospel — “It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” (Mk 10:17-30)

St. Luke-Saint Luke, also known as Luke the Evangelist, is widely regarded as the author of both the Gospel of Luke and the Book of Acts. He wrote more of the New Testament than anyone else—even the Apostle Paul. Luke wasn’t an eyewitness to Jesus’ ministry, but he lived during the first century, and according to his own writings, he “carefully investigated everything from the beginning” (Luke 1:1-4). As a traveling companion of Paul, he also likely had direct access to the apostles and other accounts of Jesus’ life and ministry. While he was presumably educated as a physician, today Luke is celebrated as one of the church’s earliest historians. His methodical, detailed writings give us the only thorough record of what happened after Jesus ascended to heaven. Without his account in Acts, it would be hard to imagine how Christianity grew from a small, fragile movement within Judaism to what would eventually become the largest religion in the world.

Pope Francis’ October Intention

We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.
