TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — Elijah said to her, “Do not be afraid.” (1 Kgs 17:10-16)

Psalm — “The fatherless and the widow he sustains, but the way of the wicked he thwarts.” (Ps 146:7,8-9,9-10)

Second Reading — “But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice.” (Heb 9:24-28)

Gospel — “Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.” (Mk 12:38-44)

Mother Cabrini- The youngest of thirteen children, Frances Cabrini was born on July 15, 1850 in a small village called S’ant Angelo Lodigiano near the city of Milan, Italy. Because of her frail health, she was not permitted to join the Daughters of the Sacred Heart who had been her teachers and under whose guidance she obtained her teaching certificate. However, in 1880, with seven young women, Frances founded the Institute of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. She and her sisters wanted to be missionaries in China; she visited Rome to obtain an audience with Pope Leo XIII. The Pope told Frances to go “not to the East, but to the West” to New York rather than to China as she had expected. She was to help the thousands of Italian immigrants already in the United States. In 1889, New York seemed to be filled with chaos and poverty, and into this new world stepped Mother Frances Cabrini and her sister companions. She established schools and orphanages despite tremendous odds including the one which bears her name on Esplanade Ave. in NOLA. Mother Cabrini died December 22, 1917 in Chicago. Her feast day is November 13th.
