TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — “Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.” (Dn 12:13-)

Psalm — “O Lord, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot..” (Ps 16:5,8,9-10, 11)

Second Reading — “For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated.” (Heb 10:11-14, 18)

Gospel — “Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.” (Mk 13:24-32)

St Cecilia- Cecilia was a young noblewoman of Rome. A devout Christian, she had pledged herself to chastity. However, her parents arranged for her to marry the noble Valerian. At the wedding celebration, while the musicians and singers performed music of a secular nature, her thoughts were only of God. On her wedding night, rather than consummating the marriage, her husband also became a Christian and joined her in a commitment to a celibate union. He and his brother Tiburtius then suffered martyrdom as a result of their public charity Cecilia professed her faith to the prefect and as punishment, she was condemned to die by suffocation in a bath. Cecilia remained miraculously unharmed in the overheated and oxygen less room, and the prefect ordered that she be decapitated instead. The executioner struck her neck three times with his sword without severing her head. She lived three days, made dispositions of her wealth in favor of the poor, and provided that after her death her house should be dedicated as a church. St. Cecilia is regarded as the patroness of music, because she heard heavenly music in her heart when she was married, and is represented in art with an organ or organ-pipes in her hand.
