Psalm — “Say among the nations: The Lord is king. He governs the people with equity.” (Ps 96:1-2,2-3,7-8,9-10)

Second Reading — “To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit” (1 Cor 12:4-11)

Gospel — “Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come.” (John 2:1-11)

The Wedding at Cana- Jesus took time out to attend a wedding feast in the village of Cana, with his mother, Mary, and his first few disciples. This miracle, showing Jesus' supernatural control over physical elements like water, marked the beginning of his public ministry. This is the third event in the trilogy of Epiphanic events where the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah takes place. Jewish weddings were steeped in tradition and ritual. One of the customs was providing an extravagant feast for guests. Something went wrong at this wedding, however, because they ran out of wine early. In that culture, such a miscalculation would have been a great humiliation for the bride and groom. Unlike some of his future spectacularly public miracles, what Jesus did by turning water into wine was done quietly, But by this miraculous sign, Jesus revealed his glory as the Son of God to his disciples. Amazed, they put their faith in him.
